

The Best Way to Become Professional Cyclist in Europe

We are looking for young Asian talents who dream of starting Tour de France

Recruitment Requirement

Age: From 15 to 22 years old

Team: Club and national cyclists, Non-continental team riders

Period: Feb-Sep 2019 road racing season in France

Minimum 2 weeks up to 6 months, ideally 3 months

We are looking for cyclists with strong desire to become professional in Europe, to learn the language, adapt to local cultures and respect people around you.

Our Way of Achieving Your Dreams

We send cyclists to French club teams racing with local teammates. There are 3 amateur racing categories in France and it is very important to start at basic level and improve stepwise with victories to gain confident and ability.

Our Success Model, Yukiya ARASHIRO

Currently with one of top World Tour teams Bahrain Merida. Yukiya competed in Tour de France 7 times and finish all 10 Grand Tours he started. Top 10 results in World Championship, Amstel Gold and TDF stage.

Yukiya was a handballer in high school went to France at age of 18 to start bike racing from lowest French armature category. Just 5 years later he received professional contract with one of top French teams Bouygues Telecom in 2009 started his 1st TDF impressively by finishing 5th on stage 2.

Team CCVSA (Division National 1)

Jian Li LEE (Malaysian, age 18)

Gantumur (Mongolian, age 23)

Team ESEG duai Origine Cycle(DN3)

Y. KADOTA (Japanese, age 21)

Financial Requirement

1 month stay 1200 euros

3 months stay 1000/month

6 months stay 900/month

Price include room & board but rider needs to purchase round trip flight ticket to Paris We will help to prepare visa application documents.

French Team Base in Aumale (Normandy)

CONTACT INFORMATION

Shinichi FUKUSHIMA

Email: info@bonnechance.jp

Bonne Chance Co. Ltd